

EXPOSED TO NOISE

The Ocean

Lyrics

Spiral

we feel what we think and that is why we are what we think if we have evil thoughts, pain comes on us and makes us suffer we ourselves are made by our thoughts by weapons with the sinister potential of destroying their own master but the pathways in our mind can lead us to enlightenment and happiness as you've been raping my home the only way collapsing

corrosive your tears ran with my own

bleeding, creeping violation triggering the fear of dying alone feels like a new life anyways

shattered mirrors in my home

Procedure 9

black roots born in your ashes thriving inside the spores of nothingness proliferate within all thoughts, all meaning monsters in us fighting a war and all of us will fall unatoned it's a nature's sin that's torn all our resilience to all things to... come along with a faceless murderer within our midst that's hiding inside you and burning up your mind eating you alive

withering lives we all have seen descent a sickness breaking through withering eyes we'll never see again the sickness is our youth we can still feel this tension forcing itself through our bones deep into this place the vast fabric of everything trembles unthinkable atrocity, a spiritual paradox walk a path into dark places run, inside - break up your connection to this world below, nothing but this eternal void

fading our memories it's killing us, keeps us bleeding and our old life is turning into a place so dark without you the only thing that remains standing still while awaiting your world dying as life itself will just cease to exist destroys all thoughts all meaning chaos inside raging and disembodied you fade out

abandon all hope all faith a life lived to die god it's not yours to give and take don't give a goddamn fuck!

Therapy

no grave, no ashes, there's no grief just this place in my head bound to my desire for relief words, that came alive told me bout the end of everything

i feel betrayed

by my own mind
this sore inside
there is no place to grief no grave to see

`cause i
i was a lie, just a vast reflection, see i'm far away from

see in my life, here i am destroyed feel the pain arise inside i die crawling faster into my void feels like mirrors fall apart in me and everything i touch is turning to ashes that's why i feel so cold inside this might be my last goodbye to my own mind

`cause i

i ain't no liar when i say anyways...

was talking to myself inside
anyways...

i didn't choose this life so i can't give it away

in any way

kind of follows

rules that i can't change

leave it all behind me when i try (to) become the one that i used to be lying to myself

you were right - trying hard won't change my life

what does

is time.

told me `bout the end of everything

`cause i

i was a lie...

Regret. Rewind. Retry.

i'm consuming the pleasures cool i walk away from my last your face down you are now blaming me for the fission you can feel i am just sinking back on my knees the things i have done turn out to be feeding your hate with passion...

i can't stop you from crawling back into your inside
i see it in your eyes
a battering time could never heal that i can't help you with shout it out you're wanting me trying on my own

stepping back - a lot of things you can't get over again a place i cannot be hating something that precious fading i'm walking backwards seeing your contemptuous eyes a failure - everything turns out to be things i have done - no chance to be feeling that you're special

feel you - all bonds have been breaking
my conscience yield to temptation seething my bliss inside god - seems like someone else's tragedy like a drama i came to see born from the inside of your eyes stop wanting me, touching me it's what you see in me what you need to believe in stop seeing me as a part of you making you whole again and rebuilding your meaning lost everything - a frantic war you feel inside withstand these pushing thoughts slowly driving you insane start separating your obsession from my own behold the world around get the fuck out of my goddamn face

feel you...

The Ocean

cry out, hold the cross that's burning our eyes divine intrusion engraving their words inside let us bow down to their voracious hollow breed machine it's their messiah burning within the lies they breathe

there was no time where the gods tried to believe in me so now i'm fine to see their end giving up my faith it is time become the enemy

how long i fought the signs i see everything's dying here, everything's burning me and i can't feel it pricking in my eyes, taking all light turns into darkest night

hell that's gotta be inside of me - it comes alive feeding on my fear and my pride i can feel that it's breathing in me it's time to rise - broken by my desire born by the end of all life taking it up - the god i fight for try to be his rising legacy - fading in the end the faith i've been running from all my life there's been this war, all the blood, the dead inside of me a war that i lost in the end burning down my faith feel the truth burn the god inside

hell that's gotta be inside of me... i'm fading inside you and i feel like i'm breaking you shining thru all of these years alive in vain

crawling thru your nights into my own demise killing me inside now

god creates i can't believe it all faking the smile i thrive

Disarray

broken, torn apart reach out my hand so insecure numb i'm falling again it doesn't seem alright that breathing feels like drowning crawling faster and this light is getting warmer i'm feeling nothing but fear that i will die in here i cannot break again, cannot break again cold so cold inside, i'm freezing can't move can't stand

I am fading away and drown and i'm breaking - i'm loosing control and i can see that i'm dying here, that i'm drowning here and this life, that seems so far away

no one sees me behind these wall of lies never faces looked so blurry like this time and i'm hearing myself cry out Battering walls down inside - in me - not me come here precious and hear me i'm crying i'm loosing my life and my lies bend this truth to

The Gift

source of friction the tension keeps growing inside you malformation in their eyes disengaging from the entity cry out undone your fragile connection to their world

hide inside a hole dugged with your bare hands strife - your way to keep a path in the other ones lives

but you will always feel me at your side seeing this chaos in your eyes when everything you touch is meant to die

pushed back distance you feel their cold eyes watch your failures and every step you take to fall disrespect, disdain that cuts your wrists feeling like transgression of natures laws shut up

created in these lines

stepping forward and claiming your rights knowing you're failing in their eyes hate in your eyes and pain in your veins meaning they've failed you all the time burn it all down tear it all down

drink up
smash it you're breathing in burned injustice to the live you could have lived all needs neglected self destruct war without blood lost inside so fuck it all

Signal

this is my gift, this is my obsession to my own disorder the scars, the blood, the truth bleeding from the inside out exhale the void that's left in you decompiling these words to the code rebuild the thoughts inject the core all lies decomposed in this room the light burning from the inside build up everything infiltrate the hostile breathe in the ashes, find the exiled hollow and blinded we fall guiding the way the dead will follow the systems fail embrace the sorrow pull me in the signal fades away

this alternating versions of myself spreading from these roots deadborn malformation rot denied the path i had to choose

that is god-made violation blood runs black right through my thoughts in vain the aggression reflects from these walls my shattered integrity

build up everything...

while you open up your eyes see me falling down while you're falling apart time and space lies dissolving within my thoughts cold and dead i am walking under these skies these orders given myself under pressure looking back at my faults to automate my reboot - resurrection burn the wires within my veins

build up everything...
